

County Claims, Lumber and Cross Tie Receipts.
The First National Bank of Batesburg will buy school and county claims and railway receipts for crosses and lumber.
W. W. Watson Cashier.

Save Your Money
and keep it in the Savings Department of the First National Bank of Batesburg—four per cent. per annum. Dividends semi-annually.

To Advertisers.
Unless copy for change of advertisement is in by 6 p. m. Monday it will be impossible to make change. This rule will not be broken. To secure better attention your ad. copy should be in Saturday.

LOCALS.

Today cotton is bringing 9 3-16.

Read theads in this weeks Advocate.

Mrs. Shelton Perry is visiting in Edgefield.

Mr. Clarence Miller is on a visit to the home folks.

Mr. Fayette Hite is off to Atlanta on a business trip.

Mr. Fred Cullum made a flying trip to Saluda Monday.

Mr. J. E. Brogden from near Sevierville was here Monday.

Mr. C. E. Craven spent several days in Atlanta last week.

Mr. B. F. Lundrum, of Johnston, was in town Saturday.

Mrs. J. D. Rawl left for Columbia, her future home, Sunday.

Mr. Neal Hartley, of Atlanta, spent Sunday with the home folks.

Dr. Byers has returned from a professional visit to Wimsboro.

Mr. C. L. Jones, of Sully, visited his father, Mr. J. O. Jones, this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Milledge Holstein, of Monetta, were in town Monday.

Mr. Barton Williams, of Sawyer, was among the visitors in town last week.

Mr. J. M. Malpass has returned from Lexington where he served on the jury last week.

Miss Amanda Boatwright, of Aiken, is visiting her brother, Dr. M. U. Boatwright.

Mrs. Allie Stevens and her sister, Miss Blanch Cato, of Monea, were in town Tuesday.

Messrs. John M. Kneese and John Stevens, of Monetta, were here this week on business.

Mr. C. B. Wright, of Johnston, visited his brother, Mr. H. T. Wright, in our city this week.

Mr. George J. Strother, who operates the oil mill at Ridge Spring, was on our streets last Friday.

Mrs. A. B. Williams and Miss Emma Horn, of Ridge Spring, shopped in Batesburg last week.

Mrs. Eva Outz, of Edgefield, and Mrs. J. H. Edwards, of Ridge Spring, visited relatives here last week.

Miss Wakefield Mattheron left on Thursday for Columbia, where she will attend the College for Women.

After a stay of several months in the green fields of old Virginia, Miss Hennie Towill is at home again.

Mr. James S. Fox leaves today for Baltimore, where he will enter the Medical College at that place.

Mr. Geo. C. Bates, the popular teller of the First National Bank, is confined to his home by sickness.

Mr. Landon Quattlebaum journeyed to Johnston Sunday to see the pretty maidens of that bustling little city.

Col. T. L. Smith, of Ridge Spring, attended the funeral of his kinsman, Mr. W. E. Youngblood, here Monday.

Dr. Ammie Smith, Ridge Spring's popular young physician, spent yesterday with his friend, Dr. J. A. Watson.

The Advocate has a supply of premium lists of the Lexington County Fair which can be had by calling at this office.

Mr. Hoyt Hartley, assistant auditor of the Seaboard with headquarters at Charleston, visited his mother here last week.

Mr. Robert McGee, cashier of the National Bank at Greenville, visited his friend Dr. Theo. A. Quattlebaum last week.

Mr. H. A. Spain will move his family back to the old home near Leesville. This family has many friends here and it is with reluctance that we've them up.

Note the ad. changes in this issue of the Advocate, they can not help but interest. Tensely told tales they are from merchants who desire your trade and publicly ask for it.

Miss Lizzie and Miss Lucile Cullum, formerly of our town, but now of Columbia, are here on a visit. They have a warm place in our hearts and we are always glad to have them with us.

Many of our citizens are this week attending the trial of James H. Tillman at Lexington. The Southern schedule is quite convenient for them; they go on the 9:30 and come back on the 6.

Miss Mary Eliza Fox left Monday for Columbia to resume her studies at the Presbyterian College for Women.

Miss Mae Helms, of Trenton, who has been visiting her accompanied her back to the college.

We are reliably informed that the mail will be taken off the train from Augusta that arrives here at 2 o'clock, a. m., and put on the train that is due at 9:30 a. m. This change will be a great convenience to our business men.

Mr. Albert Jones, always a gallant sport went "rowing" Sunday afternoon. He returned quite late that night, so it must be presumed he was thrown overboard and had to swim ashore, though he was not wet when we saw him.

TILLMAN TRIAL

It is on at Lexington and the Town is Taxed to Its Utmost Capacity to Care for Those In Attendance --- Little Trouble Experienced in Selecting the Jury---Array of Legal Talent.

The trial of James H. Tillman, charged with the murder of Editor Gonzales, of the Columbia State is on, despite the predictions and assertions that it would not come to trial at this court. The jury was selected with no trouble and is composed of the following gentlemen:

GEORGE H. KOON, Foreman,
JACOB E. SAYLOR,
IRVING RISINGER,
HOMER WOODS,
GEORGE F. LEITZSEY,
M. L. LUTHER,
MILTON SHARPE,
JONAS CORLEY,
MARSHALL SHELLEY,
J. B. JUMPER,
WILLIAM L. HICKS,
JAMES E. PRICE.

Many of the jurors summoned were thrown out for various reasons. The readiness of the prosecution to proceed with the case caused a great surprise to all, as it was expected for several reasons that they would ask for a continuance.

The arraignment of James H. Tillman was a dramatic one. The indictment containing two charges, one for murder and the other for carrying a concealed weapon were read. The clerk then asked Mr. Tillman how he pleaded and the defendant responded in a clear even tone, "Not guilty."

Mr. Nelson, an attorney for the defense, said he did not desire that the juryman be deprived the pleasure of literature but did ask that they be forbidden to read the Columbia State, on account of recent editorial utterances. The judge so ordered.

Court adjourned at 1:30 for dinner.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Geo. E. Poland, the policeman who arrested Tillman was the first witness introduced. His testimony consisted of telling of Tillman's arrest and the finding of another pistol on him at the station house. Told Tillman to give up his gun, that he would be protected. Both of the pistols taken from Tillman were exhibited, one being loaded.

Sheriff Coleman and Clerk of Court Walker, of Richland county were the next witnesses examined, testifying to bullet and clothing.

At this point the judge was informed that the pistols were cocked and loaded, whereupon he ordered that they be unloaded.

Mr. J. A. Hoyt, Jr., associate editor of the State identified the overcoat worn by Mr. Gonzales on day of shooting, as did Louis G. Wood, Jr., a reporter on the same paper.

Mr. M. C. Wallace recognized the coat as he took it off of Mr. Gonzales after he was shot and made of it a pillow for him.

After the evidence of Mr. Wallace court adjourned until Tuesday morning.

TUESDAY.

Considerable progress was made by the prosecution yesterday. A number of witnesses were examined. The number of spectators were smaller than on the preceding day, but at times the court room was well filled.

The prisoner's wife, mother and many lady friends were present. Hon. B. R. Tillman did not arrive up to the adjournment of court.

The files of the Columbia State for the year 1902 were sworn to by Mr. Amos E. Gonzales, president of the State Company. These are the files which contain the attacks upon Tillman by the late Editor Gonzales.

Dr. S. D. T. Lanester, and Welder Zimmerman and Francis Weston Smith, aged 14 and 12 years respectively, swore to seeing a pistol on the prisoner's person the day preceding the shooting.

Hon. Spann Dowling, a member of the Legislature from Bamberg county, testified to the preparation of the defendant for the shooting. He related a conversation between himself and Tillman in the jail on January 15th in which Tillman said: "I'll hit him where I aimed for he is a dead man."

Hon. Mr. Gause, of Florence county, testified to an expression made by the defendant which indicated his intention to attack Gonzales. Mr. Arthur, of Edgefield, testified in the same strain.

Drs. Gregory, Taylor, Pope and Griffith testified as to Gonzales wounds, their nature, treatment, etc.

W. F. Seelitz testified to the repairing of a German magazine pistol, which was turned over to Tillman the morning of the shooting.

After an argument as to the possession of the State files, they were turned over to the attorney's for the defendant.

Court then adjourned until 9:30 a. m. Wednesday, when the State will again take up its case. The prosecution will not rest its case today.

As was expected the best of order prevails at Lexington and everything is moving along nicely.

Subscribe for the Advocate.

Mr. T. R. Jones, of Sawyer, was on our streets last Friday.

Miss Leila Jordan, of Ridge Spring, shopped here last Friday.

Mr. Clarence Smith, of West, Texas, came home last Friday on a visit.

Mrs. J. E. Hinnant, of Rion, is on a visit to relatives in this community.

Dr. Danzier, of Sawyer, Aiken county, was with us the latter part of last week.

Mr. J. C. Jumper, of near Lewisdale, was in town on business last week.

Mr. H. B. White, treasurer of Saluda county, was in town last Thursday.

Mr. J. D. Parrish and wife were in town last Thursday on a shopping expedition.

Mr. J. B. Hydrick and daughter of Beulah, Aiken county, were in our midst last week.

The Augusta Chronicle is widely read in Batesburg and on Sunday morning seems to be a panacea for all ills.

Prof. Amick, of Cedar Springs Institute, and Mr. John Swearingen, of Trenton, are visiting the family of Capt. U. N. Gunter.

The Buck Store and Range Co. has an ad in this week. They are handled here by L. D. Cullum & Co. Read what they have to say.

Mr. G. W. Beatwright, of Fox, says there are too many chicken peddlers coming to town on Saturday. He always does well and should be satisfied.

Mr. Jacob Wolfe has opened up a dry goods and clothing store in the Birkard old stand. We welcome Mr. Wolfe to Batesburg and wish for him success. See ad elsewhere.

The dwelling house at the Middleburg Mills is receiving a fresh coat of paint. A nice park is being laid out and the streets put into good condition. This speaks well for the management and is appreciated by the operatives.

Miss Mary Wilkes Scaife, assisted by Miss Christine North South, Dr. L. J. Smith and Miss L. M. Watts, will give a musical recital at the auditorium at Ridge Spring on Friday evening, Oct. 21, at 8:30. The program is an attractive one.

AD. CHANGES THIS WEEK.

Advocate,
County Fair,
N. U. Gunter,
R. S. Simmons,
J. D. Timmons,
Steadman & Riley,
Southern Railway,
Batesburg Drug Co.,
Wolfe's Clothing Store,
Buck Store and Range,
New York Racket Store,
J. Will Quattlebaum Co.

DEATH OF MR. W. E. YOUNGBLOOD.

After a lingering illness Mr. W. E. Youngblood passed into the great beyond last Sunday night. He had been a sufferer for some months and all that willing hands could do was done, but death came as a relief. His remains were interred in the cemetery Monday evening. Mr. Youngblood leaves a mother, three brothers and three sisters to mourn their loss. The deceased had many friends in this community.

A LITTLE FABLE.

Once upon a time there came a Wise Man who set up in Business as a Distributing Center of Knowledge.

There came unto Him certain Smart Alecks who thought to Confound him by Asking:

"Why does a Rabbit wiggle its Nose?"

But the Wise Man simply Collected two dollars and answered them thus:

"Because the Nose cannot Wiggle the Rabbit."

Moral: Do not get gay with People whose Out for the Coin.

TO RAISE FUNDS FOR FURMAN.

Rev. J. L. Allen has had charge of the movement to raise for Furman University one hundred thousand dollars for the past ten months, and an indefatigable worker he is. When a movement of such great importance to a large denomination as the Baptist denomination in this State has such a representative, it can but succeed. During Mr. Allen's few days stay in our town he succeeded in receiving several pledges from some of our leading citizens. It has been necessary to secure assistants to engage in the work with him, so as to win out in the prescribed time. Never in the history of the State have the Baptists had such an opportunity to advance the interests of Furman University and make it what it should be and what it deserves to be—one of the best equipped institutions in South Carolina. We devoutly wish Mr. Allen and his co-laborers all success.

TO RAISE FUNDS FOR FURMAN.

Rev. J. L. Allen has had charge of the movement to raise for Furman University one hundred thousand dollars for the past ten months, and an indefatigable worker he is. When a movement of such great importance to a large denomination as the Baptist denomination in this State has such a representative, it can but succeed. During Mr. Allen's few days stay in our town he succeeded in receiving several pledges from some of our leading citizens. It has been necessary to secure assistants to engage in the work with him, so as to win out in the prescribed time. Never in the history of the State have the Baptists had such an opportunity to advance the interests of Furman University and make it what it should be and what it deserves to be—one of the best equipped institutions in South Carolina. We devoutly wish Mr. Allen and his co-laborers all success.

TO RAISE FUNDS FOR FURMAN.

Rev. J. L. Allen has had charge of the movement to raise for Furman University one hundred thousand dollars for the past ten months, and an indefatigable worker he is. When a movement of such great importance to a large denomination as the Baptist denomination in this State has such a representative, it can but succeed. During Mr. Allen's few days stay in our town he succeeded in receiving several pledges from some of our leading citizens. It has been necessary to secure assistants to engage in the work with him, so as to win out in the prescribed time. Never in the history of the State have the Baptists had such an opportunity to advance the interests of Furman University and make it what it should be and what it deserves to be—one of the best equipped institutions in South Carolina. We devoutly wish Mr. Allen and his co-laborers all success.

TO RAISE FUNDS FOR FURMAN.

Rev. J. L. Allen has had charge of the movement to raise for Furman University one hundred thousand dollars for the past ten months, and an indefatigable worker he is. When a movement of such great importance to a large denomination as the Baptist denomination in this State has such a representative, it can but succeed. During Mr. Allen's few days stay in our town he succeeded in receiving several pledges from some of our leading citizens. It has been necessary to secure assistants to engage in the work with him, so as to win out in the prescribed time. Never in the history of the State have the Baptists had such an opportunity to advance the interests of Furman University and make it what it should be and what it deserves to be—one of the best equipped institutions in South Carolina. We devoutly wish Mr. Allen and his co-laborers all success.

TO RAISE FUNDS FOR FURMAN.

Rev. J. L. Allen has had charge of the movement to raise for Furman University one hundred thousand dollars for the past ten months, and an indefatigable worker he is. When a movement of such great importance to a large denomination as the Baptist denomination in this State has such a representative, it can but succeed. During Mr. Allen's few days stay in our town he succeeded in receiving several pledges from some of our leading citizens. It has been necessary to secure assistants to engage in the work with him, so as to win out in the prescribed time. Never in the history of the State have the Baptists had such an opportunity to advance the interests of Furman University and make it what it should be and what it deserves to be—one of the best equipped institutions in South Carolina. We devoutly wish Mr. Allen and his co-laborers all success.

TO RAISE FUNDS FOR FURMAN.

Rev. J. L. Allen has had charge of the movement to raise for Furman University one hundred thousand dollars for the past ten months, and an indefatigable worker he is. When a movement of such great importance to a large denomination as the Baptist denomination in this State has such a representative, it can but succeed. During Mr. Allen's few days stay in our town he succeeded in receiving several pledges from some of our leading citizens. It has been necessary to secure assistants to engage in the work with him, so as to win out in the prescribed time. Never in the history of the State have the Baptists had such an opportunity to advance the interests of Furman University and make it what it should be and what it deserves to be—one of the best equipped institutions in South Carolina. We devoutly wish Mr. Allen and his co-laborers all success.

TO RAISE FUNDS FOR FURMAN.

Rev. J. L. Allen has had charge of the movement to raise for Furman University one hundred thousand dollars for the past ten months, and an indefatigable worker he is. When a movement of such great importance to a large denomination as the Baptist denomination in this State has such a representative, it can but succeed. During Mr. Allen's few days stay in our town he succeeded in receiving several pledges from some of our leading citizens. It has been necessary to secure assistants to engage in the work with him, so as to win out in the prescribed time. Never in the history of the State have the Baptists had such an opportunity to advance the interests of Furman University and make it what it should be and what it deserves to be—one of the best equipped institutions in South Carolina. We devoutly wish Mr. Allen and his co-laborers all success.

TO RAISE FUNDS FOR FURMAN.

Rev. J. L. Allen has had charge of the movement to raise for Furman University one hundred thousand dollars for the past ten months, and an indefatigable worker he is. When a movement of such great importance to a large denomination as the Baptist denomination in this State has such a representative, it can but succeed. During Mr. Allen's few days stay in our town he succeeded in receiving several pledges from some of our leading citizens. It has been necessary to secure assistants to engage in the work with him, so as to win out in the prescribed time. Never in the history of the State have the Baptists had such an opportunity to advance the interests of Furman University and make it what it should be and what it deserves to be—one of the best equipped institutions in South Carolina. We devoutly wish Mr. Allen and his co-laborers all success.

TO RAISE FUNDS FOR FURMAN.

Rev. J. L. Allen has had charge of the movement to raise for Furman University one hundred thousand dollars for the past ten months, and an indefatigable worker he is. When a movement of such great importance to a large denomination as the Baptist denomination in this State has such a representative, it can but succeed. During Mr. Allen's few days stay in our town he succeeded in receiving several pledges from some of our leading citizens. It has been necessary to secure assistants to engage in the work with him, so as to win out in the prescribed time. Never in the history of the State have the Baptists had such an opportunity to advance the interests of Furman University and make it what it should be and what it deserves to be—one of the best equipped institutions in South Carolina. We devoutly wish Mr. Allen and his co-laborers all success.

TO RAISE FUNDS FOR FURMAN.

Rev. J. L. Allen has had charge of the movement to raise for Furman University one hundred thousand dollars for the past ten months, and an indefatigable worker he is. When a movement of such great importance to a large denomination as the Baptist denomination in this State has such a representative, it can but succeed. During Mr. Allen's few days stay in our town he succeeded in receiving several pledges from some of our leading citizens. It has been necessary to secure assistants to engage in the work with him, so as to win out in the prescribed time. Never in the history of the State have the Baptists had such an opportunity to advance the interests of Furman University and make it what it should be and what it deserves to be—one of the best equipped institutions in South Carolina. We devoutly wish Mr. Allen and his co-laborers all success.

TO RAISE FUNDS FOR FURMAN.

Rev. J. L. Allen has had charge of the movement to raise for Furman University one hundred thousand dollars for the past ten months, and an indefatigable worker he is. When a movement of such great importance to a large denomination as the Baptist denomination in this State has such a representative, it can but succeed. During Mr. Allen's few days stay in our town he succeeded in receiving several pledges from some of our leading citizens. It has been necessary to secure assistants to engage in the work with him, so as to win out in the prescribed time. Never in the history of the State have the Baptists had such an opportunity to advance the interests of Furman University and make it what it should be and what it deserves to be—one of the best equipped institutions in South Carolina. We devoutly wish Mr. Allen and his co-laborers all success.

TO RAISE FUNDS FOR FURMAN.

Rev. J. L. Allen has had charge of the movement to raise for Furman University one hundred thousand dollars for the past ten months, and an indefatigable worker he is. When a movement of such great importance to a large denomination as the Baptist denomination in this State has such a representative, it can but succeed. During Mr. Allen's few days stay in our town he succeeded in receiving several pledges from some of our leading citizens. It has been necessary to secure assistants to engage in the work with him, so as to win out in the prescribed time. Never in the history of the State have the Baptists had such an opportunity to advance the interests of Furman University and make it what it should be and what it deserves to be—one of the best equipped institutions in South Carolina. We devoutly wish Mr. Allen and his co-laborers all success.

TO RAISE FUNDS FOR FURMAN.

Rev. J. L. Allen has had charge of the movement to raise for Furman University one hundred thousand dollars for the past ten months, and an indefatigable worker he is. When a movement of such great importance to a large denomination as the Baptist denomination in this State has such a representative, it can but succeed. During Mr. Allen's few days stay in our town he succeeded in receiving several pledges from some of our leading citizens. It has been necessary to secure assistants to engage in the work with him, so as to win out in the prescribed time. Never in the history of the State have the Baptists had such an opportunity to advance the interests of Furman University and make it what it should be and what it deserves to be—one of the best equipped institutions in South Carolina. We devoutly wish Mr. Allen and his co-laborers all success.

TO RAISE FUNDS FOR FURMAN.

Rev. J. L. Allen has had charge of the movement to raise for Furman University one hundred thousand dollars for the past ten months, and an indefatigable worker he is. When a movement of such great importance to a large denomination as the Baptist denomination in this State has such a representative, it can but succeed. During Mr. Allen's few days stay in our town he succeeded in receiving several pledges from some of our leading citizens. It has been necessary to secure assistants to engage in the work with him, so as to win out in the prescribed time. Never in the history of the State have the Baptists had such an opportunity to advance the interests of Furman University and make it what it should be and what it deserves to be—one of the best equipped institutions in South Carolina. We devoutly wish Mr. Allen and his co-laborers all success.

TO RAISE FUNDS FOR FURMAN.

Rev. J. L. Allen has had charge of the movement to raise for Furman University one hundred thousand dollars for the past ten months, and an indefatigable worker he is. When a movement of such great importance to a large denomination as the Baptist denomination in this State has such a representative, it can but succeed. During Mr. Allen's few days stay in our town he succeeded in receiving several pledges from some of our leading citizens. It has been necessary to secure assistants to engage in the work with him, so as to win out in the prescribed time. Never in the history of the State have the Baptists had such an opportunity to advance the interests of Furman University and make it what it should be and what it deserves to be—one of the best equipped institutions in South Carolina. We devoutly wish Mr. Allen and his co-laborers all success.

TO RAISE FUNDS FOR FURMAN.

Rev. J. L. Allen has had charge of the movement to raise for Furman University one hundred thousand dollars for the past ten months, and an indefatigable worker he is. When a movement of such great importance to a large denomination as the Baptist denomination in this State has such a representative, it can but succeed. During Mr. Allen's few days stay in our town he succeeded in receiving several pledges from some of our leading citizens. It has been necessary to secure assistants to engage in the work with him, so as to win out in the prescribed time. Never in the history of the State have the Baptists had such an opportunity to advance the interests of Furman University and make it what it should be and what it deserves to be—one of the best equipped institutions in South Carolina. We devoutly wish Mr. Allen and his co-laborers all success.

TO RAISE FUNDS FOR FURMAN.

Rev. J. L. Allen has had charge of the movement to raise for Furman University one hundred thousand dollars for the past ten months, and an indefatigable worker he is. When a movement of such great importance to a large denomination as the Baptist denomination in this State has such a representative, it can but succeed. During Mr. Allen's few days stay in our town he succeeded in receiving several pledges from some of our leading citizens. It has been necessary to secure assistants to engage in the work with him, so as to win out in the prescribed time. Never in the history of the State have the Baptists had such an opportunity to advance the interests of Furman University and make it what it should be and what it deserves to be—one of the best equipped institutions in South Carolina. We devoutly wish Mr. Allen and his co-laborers all success.

TO RAISE FUNDS FOR FURMAN.

Rev. J. L. Allen has had charge of the movement to raise for Furman University one hundred thousand dollars for the past ten months, and an indefatigable worker he is. When a movement of such great importance to a large denomination as the Baptist denomination in this State has such a representative, it can but succeed. During Mr. Allen's few days stay in our town he succeeded in receiving several pledges from some of our leading citizens. It has been necessary to secure assistants to engage in the work with him, so as to win out in the prescribed time. Never in the history of the State have the Baptists had such an opportunity to advance the interests of Furman University and make it what it should be and what it deserves to be—one of the best equipped institutions in South Carolina. We devoutly wish Mr. Allen and his co-laborers all success.

TO RAISE FUNDS FOR FURMAN.

Rev. J. L. Allen has had charge of the movement to raise for Furman University one hundred thousand dollars for the past ten months, and an indefatigable worker he is. When a movement of such great importance to a large denomination as the Baptist denomination in this State has such a representative, it can but succeed. During Mr. Allen's few days stay in our town he succeeded in receiving several pledges from some of our leading citizens. It has been necessary to secure assistants to engage in the work with him, so as to win out in the prescribed time. Never in the history of the State have the Baptists had such an opportunity to advance the interests of Furman University and make it what it should be and what it deserves to be—one of the best equipped institutions in South Carolina. We devoutly wish Mr. Allen and his co-laborers all success.

TO RAISE FUNDS FOR FURMAN.

Rev. J. L. Allen has had charge of the movement to raise for Furman University one hundred thousand dollars for the past ten months, and an indefatigable worker he is. When a movement of such great importance to a large denomination as the Baptist denomination in this State has such a representative, it can but succeed. During Mr. Allen's few days stay in our town he succeeded in receiving several pledges from some of our leading citizens. It has been necessary to secure assistants to engage in the work with him, so as to win out in the prescribed time. Never in the history of the State have the Baptists had such an opportunity to advance the interests of Furman University and make it what it should be and what it deserves to be—one of the best equipped institutions in South Carolina. We devoutly wish Mr. Allen and his co-laborers all success.

All Signs

TOWARD

The Firm That Feeds the People

The J. WILL QUATTLEBAUM COMPANY.

SHOES

SHOES

SHOES

SHOES

SHOES

SHOES

SHOES

SHOES

SHOES

SHOES

SHOES

SHOES

SHOES

Free Delivery.

JURY LIST
For Third Week, September Term of Court, 1903.

Sidney C. Fulmer,
Elliott Hallman,
James D. McArthur,
Henry E. Amick,
Scott T. Shirey,
Saml. D. Shealy,
David F. Loriek,
J. Luther Shull,
W. W. Fulmer,
O. L. Mayer,
Willie E. Corley,
J. Bachman Meetze,
I. Belle Gantt,
Elbert S. Hildman,
Amos N. Corley,
James F. Jumper,
Jacob J. Ballentine,
G. Holland Shelly,
H. Frank Wheeler,
J. L. Brooker,
George B. Lee,
William D. Wise,
J. Calvin Shealy,
Elijah M. Heisler,
Joseph L. Halliway,
Z. B. Epling,
William F. Stabler,
John Watts,
Praston O. Counts,
John L. Derrick,
David C. Counts,
W. F. Mack,
Austin I. Meetze,
J. B. Stokes,
N. U. Gunter,
A. D. Steele.

MILLINERY OPENING.

Grand Display
—OF—
French Pattern
Hats.

Sept. 30, Oct. 1
:: at ::
N